On December 11, 2002, the Commission found reason to believe in MUR 4789 that the Democratic Party of New Mexico ("Committee") and Judy Baker, as treasurer (together, "Respondents"), violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(8) by failing to accurately report its debt in financial reports that it filed with the Commission.¹ The Commission also found reason to believe in MUR 5340 that the Respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting contributions in excess of the limitations set forth in the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("Act").² The Commission approved a proposed conciliation agreement in these matters

¹ MUR 4789 was generated from a complaint filed by the Republican Party of New Mexico on August 14, 1998.

² MUR 5340 was generated from an audit referral.
